

Tendai

Madondo

Your local Green Party representative
South Dublin Co. Council, Tallaght South

Hi, I am a Zimbabwean living in Tallaght for the last 6 years. I believe I can contribute to positive and sustained change for residents of Tallaght. I would like hear your views on what issues are of importance to you.

Please do not hesitate to contact me at tendaimadondo@gmail.com or on my mobile 086 162 1846

I look forward to working with you.

green
party

dublin south

Tendai Madondo and Minister John Gormley

Working Together

green
party

dublin south

Email: tendaimadondo@gmail.com Website: www.tendaimadondo.com

What I stand for;

Education

Children – who are the future generations are adequately educated

Social and Health care

Child care services that adequately cater for the local families, Disabled and elderly people have quality care and support

Transport & Infrastructure

Our infrastructure and transport system matches the local growth

Environment

Green spaces are provided for everyone to enjoy

Participation

Community growth and intergration is active

- Tendai is married to a civil engineer and they have two girls aged 11 and 6 who attend the local school.
- Tendai has a degree in Philosophy, Religious Studies and Shona (Drama)
- A Masters in Adult and Community Education and a Masters in Business Administration in Health Services Management from Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland.

Tendai has experience working with the following organisations;

- Christian Aid Ireland
- Tallazens and Tallaght Intercultural Action
- Tallaght Partnership as a researcher
- Tallaght hospital as a care assistant
- Cairde as a development officer
- Community fundraising for bereaved families

Printed on Recycled Paper.